The image shows a horizontal banner divided into three sections. The outer sections are black and white checkered patterns, while the central section is a solid red color.

The image features a black and white halftone background pattern. It consists of a grid of small, square-shaped dots arranged in a staggered, non-uniform pattern. The density of the dots varies across the frame, creating a visual effect similar to a grayscale photograph. A single horizontal row of red pixels is visible at the top edge of the image.
